hmmmm I've never gave gift cards through the store. Only games. So hmmmm

Are there any restrictions on purchasing digital gift cards?

You and your friend must both have Steam accounts and you'll need to be friends on Steam. You can purchase Steam digital gift cards for any user that you have had on your friends list for at least 3 days. Please note that you cannot use existing wallet funds to purchase a digital gift card.

so I say try it in a few days.

BrunoDiaz_ 20-Dec-20 02:56 PM

Yeah, let's do that.

ItsAHazardLife 20-Dec-20 02:58 PM

ItsAHazardLife 04-Feb-21 09:06 AM

I am hoping I didn't connect the dots right, Meagan said in Saika's chat, good morning from me and bruno and that she was visiting her bf in MO. I'm hoping that is not you. If it is I hope she treats you better than she treated me, cause she cheated on me and while in a relationship she said horny/wet for another guy and that she wanted this other guys kids.

BrunoDiaz_ 04-Feb-21 09:27 AM

Hey bud. I've been giving a lot of thought to this topic since I found out that you and her were an item. I don't have to tell you how highly I think of you or anything like that and I hope this doesn't change your opinion of me. Relationships don't work out man. I started talking to her and I am really enjoying out time together. For what it's worth, I hear what you're saying and I'm sorry that you two didn't work out. I don't wish to argue the points or anything like that and I'll take your hopes for her to treat me well with high regards and positivity. So thanks for that man. I do hope you're well and I don't want you to be distant or uncomfortable with me or her, obviously right? I really felt fond of our relationship with each other, especially toward the end of 2020. I'm not sure if there are feelings on the topic that you need to navigate still but if there are, I hope you do sir. I will not stop being your friend. I apologize about the delay. I'm both making breakfast and working from home. And yes, she is here so that is accurate man. I need to get back to it so I wish you well my guy, and I hope your work grind is going well. Cheers bud!

ItsAHazardLife 04-Feb-21 09:37 AM

Welp it's uncomfortable just her being around my family (Saika and Spar) constantly to the point I've unmodded myself. So basically you probably will not be seeing me around in all honesty. She legit has people thinking she didn't cheat on me with the things she said that night. Claiming they were just joke or her being a "Wing woman". I'm doing good and doing what's best for me while seeing who my fake friends are through this all. I never even made knowledge to you why I didn't like ZachN Cheese I just said hi, heard his voice and left stream.

ItsAHazardLife 04-Feb-21 09:54 AM

All I can say at this point you're now dating my ex that cheated on me. I don't know what she has told you, but I have zero respect for people that cheat especially when they can't admit it. I don't even like when people support cheaters nor make excuses for people that cheat like it was just jokes between girlfriends, she was being a wing-woman, etc. After things happened in Zach's chat the one night, I was uncomfortable with her around Clay or Zach, but especially Clay. She had no care for how I felt and just wanted to be around them. So do I respect you for dating her? Not really, but I just hope she doesn't end up cheating on you like she did me.

Trust me I know both relationships and friendships don't work. The worst ones that don't work out are when you find out that they cheated or potentially had feelings for another guy. With lies trying to cover it up to make it seem right, like she "didn't want to feel left out" or she "was just trying to be a wing-woman" for someone she considered a friend. Hell the worst friendships are the ones where you find out they betrayed you.

BrunoDiaz_ 04-Feb-21 10:02 AM

This seems like a lot of dirty laundry man. I appreciate what you're trying to do but this is getting into a bit of detail that from all sources has different "facts" or "accounts of how it happened" and not just from the two of you. I really don't wish to argue any of it. Wishing me well in this was perfect man. Can't we just go with that? I know you're still hurt by it, I can tell by this response my dude. I do hope that the pain of all of this subsides and you find peace through it. I would only offer you this to see if your perspective on it might change, even if you think the truth is different. What if you got this wrong? Not saying you do. Let's say you have it right and then her and I have a perfectly fine relationship and build on it? Holding onto all of that isn't going to help you man. If you're still fond of me? Wishing me well is a great and positive thing, so again, I will take that with the best intentions man. Thank you again. But I don't want to know all these details. I'm out here doing my thing and pushing through life. I have had several friends break up lately and I've been a good friend to each of them. I want what's best for everyone

So, I hope you find peace in all of this mess that you guys had. I really do bro. I'm sorry I didn't reach out sooner but I know you well enough to know that you were hurt and you take hurt to another level.

It's not a bad thing, it's not a "weak" thing or anything else. It's just how it is. I really am the same way. So...as someone that's been through it as well? Come out the otherside with 3 kids, a ton of therapy bills later and a divorce? Dude....I'm wishing you the best to get through it all. It's not easy but what you're doing with your drive and your focus....it's the way man. Success and moving on is the real key to peace. It has been for me at least.

ItsAHazardLife 04-Feb-21 10:07 AM

The pain I have is coming from the people I considered friends or family for the most part cause I feel like they support and are ok with what she did to me.

As far as me getting these facts wrong? Not at all, why do I remember everything clearly is cause I had been sick for 2 weeks. I fell asleep early cause of it and because I knew I had to get up to go get tested for covid. On my way back is when I read her side of things. Then was curious why she was saying what she did. When I got home I watched the vod and it just blew my mind even more. Then later in the day I saw the screenshots between her and a person she called a friend. Made everything she said in chat worse. This is stuff people didn't know about me for that day and the whole worrying about possibly having covid made everything else stuck in my brain.

If you and her have a good relationship good for you, but you will lose me as a friend. I won't support it.

BrunoDiaz_ 04-Feb-21 10:22 AM

Losing you as a friend will suck. I'm sorry that you feel that way and will not take a different perspective on it. There are no motives of anyone that I've spoken to, to be disrespectful for you or at you. Speaking solely for me, I'm still going to wish you well and you'll always be welcome. I hope that you find peace and when you do, I'll still be here, I'll still be your friend and wishing you nothing but peace, prosperity and healing man. So, if this is a "good bye" from you, then I'll say "take care for now". I look forward to meeting you in a more peaceful place in the future man. Take care sir ♥

ItsAHazardLife 04-Feb-21 10:26 AM

This "dirty laundry" that i told you is basically me warning you of what you may be looking at. Cause what happened did happen and im tired of people telling me it didn't happen or making excuses for her actions that night.

BrunoDiaz_ 04-Feb-21 10:30 AM

I heard you man. I really did. I'm sorry that the events still weighs on you like this. Wishing you peace and healing man. I hope you find a way to let all this go, it's heavy.

I can tell it's heavy on you. I hope you recognize it and try and replace the pain with success and prosperity man.

I'll not stop wishing you well

Cheers my guy
